Harvard Law School Forum

Dear Mr. Granik:

I appreciate your letter of February 20.
Whenever I find that I can get away to join you at a Harvard Law School Forum, I shall let you know, and see whether it fits in with your plans.

At the moment, we have an unusual number of problems, and I have had to cut down to a minimum my trips away from Washington and my desk.

Faithfully yours,

Honorable Allen W. Dulles, Director

Dear Mr. Dulles,

Thank you for your letter of December 31, 1960. As we had given the program wide publicity throughout the University, the student body had all looked forward to hearing you speak before the Harvard Law School Forum; and we were indeed disappointed upon learning that you had been forced to postpone your plans to participate in the Forum, at least for the early weeks of the administration.

STAT

However, Mr. [ ] in a telephone conversation with me in January, indicated that you might be able to find time to speak before the Forum sometime after the beginning of March.
As of now, we have only one Forum scheduled for that month, on March 17; we could offer you any other day in March as a speaking date — whichever date would be most convenient to you.

If there is any possibility that you might be able to participate in the Forum, please let us know so that we could make arrangements. Thanking you for your kind consideration of our request, I remain

Very truly yours,

William Brauk
